

	Tuesday 25th may	Wednesday 26th may	Thursday 27 th May
09:00 – 09:15		Morning session	Morning session
09:15 – 10:00	Welcome, presentations and short introduction	Knut Sogner: Materialism and economic history (seminar)
10:15 – 11:00	Knut Kjeldstadli: (lecture)	Round table: New and old materialism	Kristin Asdal: Material semiotics (seminar)
11:15 – 12:00	Break	Essay seminar	Essay seminar
12:00 – 13:15	Essay seminar	Break	Break
13:15 – 14:00		Anne Kveim Lie: The materiality of the body (seminar)	Ines Prodöhl: Materiality of commodities (seminar)
14:15 – 15:00		Walk and talk	Walk and talk
15:15 – 16:00		Svein Atle Skålevåg: Foucault and materiality (seminar)	Round table
18:30 – 20:00	Timothy Lecain (Lecture and discussion): The matter of history

Litterature:

- LeCain: The matter of history. How things create the past. (ch 3: Natural born humans. A neo-materialist theory and method of history – p 67 – 140) 2017 (73 pages)
- Asdal, Kristin: “What is the issue? The transformative capacity of documents.” Distinktion: Scandinavian journal of Social theory. 2015 (16 pages)
- Prodöhl, Ines: “From dinner to dynamite: Fats and oils in wartime America.” Global food history 2016 (18 pages)
- Lipartito, Kenneth: “Reassembling the Economic: New departures in Historical Materialism.” 2016 (39 pages)
- Foucault, Michel: “Docile bodies” (from The birth of the prison, p 135 – 169 (36 pages)
- Clever, Iris and Willemijn Ruberg: “Beyond cultural history? The material turn, Praxiography and Body History”. Humanities 2014 (17 pages)