

Center for Multilingualism in Society Across the Lifespan (MultiLing)

Postdoctoral Research Fellowship in multilingualism

A three-year Postdoctoral Research Fellowship (SKO 1352), financed by the Research Council of Norway, is available at the Center for Multilingualism in Society across the Lifespan (MultiLing) at the Department of Linguistics and Scandinavian Studies, University of Oslo, starting April 2020.

MultiLing is a Center of Excellence funded by the Research Council of Norway and opened in June 2013. The Center successfully completed the Midterm Evaluation to secure funding for the second period of five years, until May 2023. MultiLing aims to generate scientific knowledge on multilingualism across the lifespan, related to three themes: Theme 1 Multilingual competence, Theme 2 Multilingual practices, and Theme 3 Multilingualism, ideologies and language policies (for more information, see <http://www.hf.uio.no/multiling/>). MultiLing's Research Strategy Plan \(MRSP\) for the Second Five Year Period \(2018 – 2023\) can be found here.

MultiLing seeks to recruit a postdoctoral candidate with excellent research qualifications who will work with MultiLing researchers collaborating on research as addressed in MultiLing's Research Strategy Plan (MRSP). The announced position is devoted to studies of multilingualism in Norwegian contexts, with a special focus on formal and/or informal language learning and development, in one or more of the following areas:

- Multilingualism in educational and institutional settings (see section 1.1 and 2.3 in MRSP)
- Multilingualism and mediated communication (for instance use of minoritized languages and/or non-standard varieties) (see section 2.4 in MRSP)
- Multilingualism in public spaces (see section 3.3 in MRSP).

Applicants are expected to present an independent research project proposal, and must articulate how the proposed project fits in MultiLing's Research Strategy Plan.

The successful candidate is expected to become part of MultiLing's research environment and contribute to its development. The successful candidate is expected to strengthen the relevant research areas addressed above, to contribute to and participate in the various workshops, conferences and activities organized by MultiLing, and to be an active member of the MultiLing team in Oslo.

The positions are available for a period of three years, starting April 1, 2020. The main purpose of postdoctoral research fellowships is to qualify researchers for work in higher academic positions within their disciplines.

Qualifications and Personal Skills

In assessing the applications, special emphasis will be placed on the quality of the project description and its relevance for MultiLing's Research Strategy Plan. We seek strongly motivated, competent and internationally oriented candidates, with high-ranking academic qualifications in the relevant area of research.
